

North Carolina's Information Sharing And Analysis Center

ISAAC is to serve as the focal point for collection, analysis and dissemination of information relative to threats or attacks, of a terrorist or organized crime nature, within and against the State of North Carolina, its citizens or infrastructure.

ISAAC is a support center for local law enforcement. Law enforcement agencies can submit and receive homeland security, drug and gang threat information. The center facilitates information exchange among various agencies, works closely with the community, local law enforcement, and various task forces in the areas of homeland security, drugs and gangs.

Partners of ISAAC include: US Attorney's Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), NC Department of Public Safety, State Bureau of Investigation (SBI), State Highway Patrol, National Guard, Chief's Association, Sheriff's Association, NC State University, Public Health, Department of Agriculture and Emergency Management.

The Information Sharing and Analysis Center is funded by Department of Homeland Security federal funds. ISAAC is overseen by the SBI's Intelligence and Information Section. The continued success of ISAAC is made possible through the support of the United States Attorney's Office-Eastern District, Thomas Walker, and the North Carolina Department of Public Safety, Secretary Frank Perry. Secretary Perry also serves as the state's Homeland Security Advisor.

ISAAC is located at SBI Headquarters, 3320 Garner Road, Raleigh, NC.
