

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Attention: NORTH CAROLINA SHERIFFS

CHANGES TO NORTH CAROLINA SEX OFFENDER REGISTRATION LAWS

 * * STARTING: DECEMBER 1, 2008 * * ***

-
- Major changes to North Carolina's Sex Offender and Public Protection Registration programs were signed into law this summer (2008), and will take effect soon.
 - Full text of North Carolina's Sex Offender and Public Protection Registration program statutes, can be accessed at www.ncleg.net, including recent Session Laws (2008-117, 2008-218, 2008-220).
 - Registered offenders have been instructed to contact their registering sheriff's office for complete details and questions on all law changes.
 - The attached notice has been prepared by the North Carolina Department of Justice, Attorney General's Office, Law Enforcement Liaison Section, to help assist registrants in understanding their requirements under these new laws.

 * * AGENCY RESPONSIBILITY * * ***

1. Discuss this information with registrants managed by your agency.
2. Ensure the registrant understands all of their requirements under the new laws.
3. Take this opportunity to confirm that all information on file with your agency is complete, accurate and current.

Soft Copy Available: Omnixx Links, Sex Offender Registration, Resources