House Bill 307 Iryna's Law: Disseminating Criminal History Information to Judicial Officials

House Bill 307 went into effect on December 1, 2025, to support informed pretrial release decisions and enhance public safety. Included in House Bill 307, "In determining which conditions of release to impose, the judicial official shall direct the arresting law enforcement officer, a pretrial services program, or a district attorney to provide a criminal history report for the defendant and shall consider the criminal history when setting conditions of pretrial release."

Pertinent Info:

To ensure law enforcement and criminal justice agencies remain compliant with federal and state regulations, agencies shall:

1. Confirm the judicial official(s) is an authorized recipient.
2. Log all CCH/III records sent to judicial official(s) as "Secondary Dissemination" using the "Attention 2" field and document in the case file.
3. Retain dissemination logs for audit purposes.
4. Use secure transmission methods (encrypted electronically or hard copy), in accordance with CJIS Security Policy.
